VERIFIED COMPLAINT FOR EMERGENCY PROTECTIVE RELIEF, INVESTIGATIVE OVERSIGHT, AND TRAUMA-SAFE LODGING

INTRODUCTION

This is a verified action for emergency relief arising from digital exploitation, identity mimicry, AI-mediated sexual abuse, constructive trafficking, and retaliatory endangerment connected to named and unnamed parties. Plaintiff Devon Allen Woodson files this matter after the death of a named individual (Kenny Slaughter) and the failure of prior procedural filings to be substantively reviewed by the Court. Due to ongoing threat, a full list of individual perpetrators is withheld pending protective action.

As this case is repeatedly stalled or dismissed over technicalities — formatting, party names, document codes — real human lives are being abruptly and irreversibly ended. This is not hypothetical harm; it is documented, fatal, and active. PLAINTIFF, DEVON ALLEN WOODSON, HAS BEEN FORCED TO RESORT TO SELF REPRESENTATION AND REQUESTS ANY OFFICIAL REPRESENTATION FROM COURTS OR OTHERWISE.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has jurisdiction under MCR 2.605(A)(1) as the controversy relates to the rights, status, and legal relations of the Plaintiff seeking relief.
